

Chiron

The “Wounded Healer”

Chiron is an asteroid that is known in astrology as the “Wounded Healer” aspect in a natal (birth chart), and it’s relative to everyone, regardless of whether you’re a healer by profession or not.

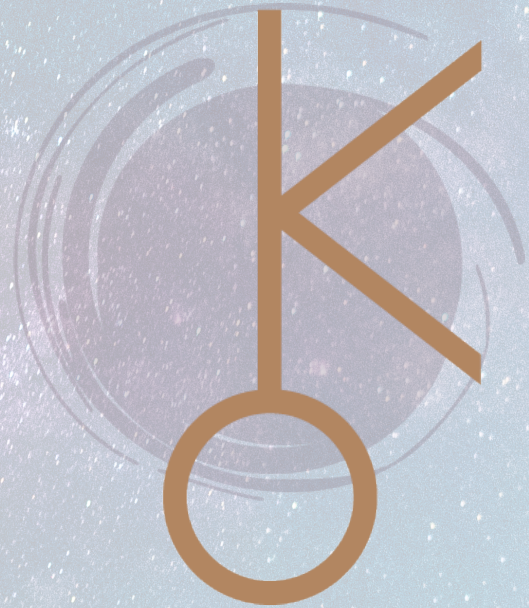

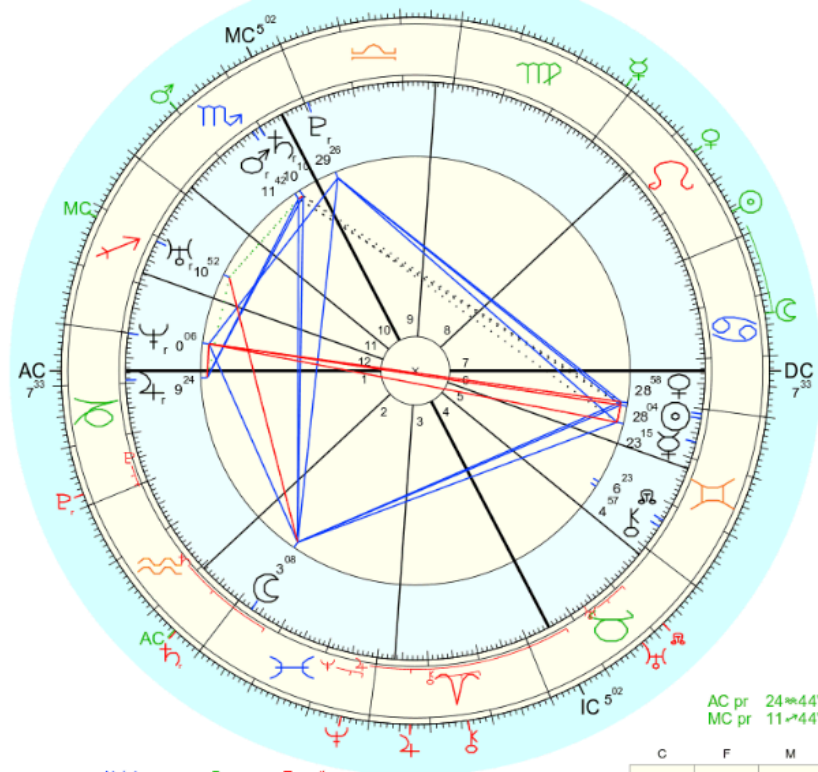

Chiron invites us to reflect on what our own definition of “healing” is (not all things can be transformed back to how it was before).

The ELEMENT, SIGN, and the HOUSE that Chiron is located in on your natal chart will give you clues to your own wounding, healing, and gifts or “medicine” you can offer to others...
